Ike Won't Ship Troops Without Congress' Okay

BY MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today he would never order American troops into any kind of action which could be interpreted as war without prior approval by Congress.

Eisenhower told a news conference that of course there might come a time when it would be necessary for U. S. forces to defend themselves in a local action.

He made it plain that under such circumstances the troops would defend themselves but he said emphatically that would not be war.

Eisenhower reacted sharply when a reporter asked whether he might order U. S. Marines, who were recently sent to the Middle East, into war if he thought the circumstances warranted it, and without getting the approval of Congress first.

A reinforced battalion of Marines, about 1,500 men, was sent last month to join the 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean.

With a show of exasperation, Eisenhower told his questioner that sometimes he gets discouraged. Then he added that he has said time and time and time again that he never would engage American troops in any kind of action which could be interpreted as war without getting a go-ahead first from Congress.

Eisenhower's news conference dealt also with these other matters:

POLITICS—Farm — Eisenhower said that of course the nation's farmers have a right to be somewhat bewildered over the general agricultural situation this election year. But he again expressed confidence that the farmers will see that the administration is trying to help them in pressing for enactment of a new farm bill.

These remarks were in response for comment on the outcome of yesterday's presidential primary in Wisconsin. Nearly complete returns there gave Eisenhower 55 per cent of the vote to 42 per cent for Sen. Kefauver of Tennessee, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. The remaining 3 per cent went to John Chapple, running as a self-designated GOP "favorite son" candidate.

A reporter told Eisenhower that Kefauver is contending the outcome reflects "great unrest" among farmers.

Asked whether he feels Republicans have cause for worry on the farm issue in the November elections, Eisenhower replied that he was not going to try to interpret the results.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) said today President Eisenhower should get Congress' approval before using U. S. ground forces in any outbreak of Middle East conflict.

Administration officials indicated, meanwhile, that use of U. S. troops in the oil-rich area would be seriously considered only if other efforts to preserve peace failed and vital American interests were directly threatened.

Secretary of State Dulles told his news conference yesterday he sees no emergency of that magnitude developing.

Sen. George, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, likewise said in a telephone interview from his home at Vienna, Ga., he does not anticipate an emergency which would require employment of American troops.

In any unexpected crisis, he said, Eisenhower might order U. S. air and avar forces into action, if he felt it necessary.

But certainly if we were going to put troops into that area, the matter should be brought before Congress," George said. "From all I know of the situation, however, I wouldn't anticipate any request of this kind, even for standby authority."

Dulles told reporters that if U. S. forces should ever have to be employed to put down an aggression, Eisenhower would act only after approval by Congress, provided there was time to get approval.

Arkansas Beauty Gets Married

JONESBORO, (UP) — The 1955 Miss Arkansas maid, Margaret Anne Haywood, was married here yesterday to her high school sweetheart, Clay Kenwood. They were married in an afternoon ceremony at the First Christian church.

The former Miss Haywood won the Arkansas Maid title last June and later took second-place honors in both the Miss USA contest in California and the Miss Universe contest in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenwood will live in Fayetteville, where he is a junior in the college of engineering at the University of Arkansas.

Driver Exonerated in Washington Pedestrian Death

In the accidental death of Troy Wayne Williams, 3-year-old Negro youth hit by a car near Washington Saturday night, a Hempstead Coroner's Jury ruled that the driver of the auto was "not guilty of criminal negligence. Coroner R. V. Herndon Jr., was in charge.

Thus the jury of 14 men exonerated S. L. Stokes of Cullendale, Ark. However, the jury did strongly recommend that the Arkansas Highway Department place appropriate slow and caution signs at each approach of the community where the accident occurred. The community is known as North Washington.

Atomic Powers Study Plan for Disarming

LONDON (AP)—Four leading U. N. atomic powers today studied the new U. S. "steps-to-disarmament" plan calling for tagged outbacks in both conventional and nuclear weapons to reduce the threat of war.

The plan calls for strict international inspections and controls, a stumbling block in previous efforts to halt the big power arms race. Once this is working, the plan provides for a census of nuclear stocks and gradual conversion of such stockpiles to peaceful purposes.

U. S. Delegate Harold E. Stassen outlined the proposal at a meeting of the five-power subcommittee of the U. N. Disarmament Commission. Delegates from the Soviet Union, Britain, France and Canada studied the lengthy, detailed draft overnight before meeting again today for fresh discussion.

The U. S. plan differs significantly from an earlier Russian proposal in that it would set up controls over nuclear weapons and production as well as limitations on conventional armaments. The Soviet plan, offered last week, dealt only with conventional weapons. This was a reversal of previous Russian demands that nuclear weapons must be banned as a first step to planning disarmament.

The U. S. plan also would limit military forces of America and the Soviets to 2½ million men each, while the Russian proposal would restrict them to 1½ million.

A spokesman said the United States regards its plan as workable. "In the world we now are living in—a world divided and torn by tensions in many areas. He termed the draft an informal framework which can be revised.

Under the U. S. plan, the nuclear phase of disarmament would not be started until reduction of conventional arms is working smoothly.

The nuclear phase would begin with a world census of atomic weapons, supplies and production. Then it would proceed to a system of control and inspection, a freeze on production and finally conversion of nuclear stockpiles to peaceful uses.

Alabama Justice Ends Own Life

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Justice James J. Mayfield of the Alabama Supreme Court was found shot to death at his home today and Coroner M. B. Kirkpatrick said it was "obviously a suicide."

Kirkpatrick said death was caused by a single pistol shot just over the right ear. A pistol was found nearby.

The coroner said Mayfield, who was a candidate for re-nomination in the May 1 Democratic primary, apparently shot himself during the night. He was in his bed.

If He Has to Live on an Isle That Can Be Reached by TV—Writer Will Take Manhattan

By HAL BOYLE

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Have you been putting off buying an island for one reason or another? Frankly, like a lot of other people, I have.

But on a vacation visit to these "Isles of June" I decided to look into the matter.

There was a kind of urgency about it. Next year comes my 20th wedding anniversary, and I have been racking my brain over what kind of present to give my wife to celebrate the event.

But what can you give a woman who already has a vacuum cleaner, an air-conditioning machine, a TV set and an electric dish washer? Obviously the only things left to give her are a kind word—or an island.

"If you buy me an island," said Frances when I brought up the subject, "just be sure it has a big tree on it—so I can tie you to it and know where you are."

I went into the H. G. Christie

Expressway for Little Rock Gets Highway Okay

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission today authorized acquisition of right of way for the proposed 23 million dollar 5.2-mile expressway through Little Rock and North Little Rock.

Right of way for the project, which would include a third bridge across the Arkansas River, must be furnished at a cost of not to exceed the figure set by appraisers employed by the state in cooperation with local officials.

Highway Director Herbert Elbridge said that in effect this condition would make the municipalities and Pulaski County responsible for any costs beyond the appraised total.

County and municipal officials will be asked to accept provisions of the order within 90 days.

The commission authorized surveys and plans and acquisition of right of way for widening and strengthening approximately five miles of Highway 82 in Miller County east from the Missouri Pacific Railroad underpass at Texarkana.

Construction projects programmed today included:

Monroe — reconstruction of approximately 14 miles of Highway 39 between Highways 70 and 79 at an estimated cost of $700,000.

Pulaski — Clear Creek bridge on Highway 67 near Wootson, $80,000.

Boone — A climbing lane on Highway 7 in Harrison, $12,700.

Columbia — four concrete bridges on Highway 82 between Magnolia and the Lafayette County line, $22,400.

Mississippi — Surfacing of 5.6 miles of Highway 136 from Highway 40 to Highway 77, $15,000; surfacing of eight miles of Highway 120 from Highway 61 to O'Donnell Bend, $21,500; surfacing of 5.2 miles on Highway 150 from No. 9 to Huffman, $15,000.

Arkansas — 2.7 miles on Highway 4 between Highway 71 and the Oklahoma state line, $16,000.

Judge Defines Issues in L. R. Racial Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The primary issue in an integration suit filed against the Little Rock School Board is whether the board's plan for a gradual end to racial segregation in this city's public schools meets requirements of the U. S. Supreme Court.

That opinion was expressed yesterday in a letter to opposing attorneys in the case from Judge John E. Miller, who will hear the suit in U. S. District Court here.

The suit was filed by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in behalf of 33 Negro children who unsuccessfully sought admittance to white public schools here last fall. The complaint asks that the School Board be ordered to end racial segregation immediately.

In reply, the board said it has a plan for gradual integration, which it expects to start in 1957 with the completion of a school construction program.

Judge Miller said in his letter, "It appears that the primary issue in the case will be whether the proposed plan is sufficient to meet the requirements of a prompt and reasonable start toward effectuation of a racially non-discriminatory school system."

The judge overruled a plea by NAACP attorneys to prohibit lawyers for the board from questioning to state leaders of the pro-integration organization. The

Accident Involves a Signal Light, Bus, Dragline

An unusual accident at Third and Hervey Streets yesterday resulted in considerable damage, Hope Police Department said today.

A Highway Department truck driven by Gilbert Honea of Blevins and loaded with a dragline attempted to turn off Hervey onto Third Street. The boom of the dragline hit a pole supporting a traffic light and the light fell off, hitting the hood and fender of a Hope District School bus driven by Cecil C. McElroy.

Officers said the light was smashed along with the hood and fender of the bus.

Ten States Have Tornado Damage

B The Associated Press

A series of tornadoes and destructive windstorms struck with unabated fury across 10 states in the mid-continent yesterday, killing at least 45 persons and injuring more than 300 others.

The violent spring storms, battering areas from the Midwest prairie lands southward into Mississippi, came in the wake of tornado winds which raked the Southwest earlier yesterday and Monday night.

The casualty toll in the two days was at least 55 dead and more than 325 injured. Property damage was estimated in the millions of dollars.

Western Michigan, in the Grand Rapids district, suffered the heaviest death and injury toll. Latest reports showed at least 22 dead, 18 identified and 4 unidentified. More than 200 were injured. A dozen twisters hammered the area destroying scores of homes. Some 2,000 were reported homeless.

Eight were killed and more than 50 injured in two Wisconsin communities. Also in the path of the turbulent weather were sections of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Kentucky, Nebraska, Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi.

In Washington, the Red Cross said in a preliminary report, that 170 homes were destroyed, 403 damaged and a total of 835 families affected by the storm in Tennessee, Mississippi, Michigan, Wisconsin, Oklahoma and Kansas. The Red Cross sent 43 disaster specialists into the stricken areas.

Tornado warnings for the Midwest and South were lifted late last night.

Hasn't Cleared Removal of Welfare Head

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — Federal authorities in Dallas notified the attorney of the recently dismissed director of the crippled children's division of the Arkansas State Welfare department yesterday that they had not "cleared" her removal.

Edwin E. Dunaway, attorney for Dr. Frances Brennecke, said the Dallas office of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare answered his query on this matter in a letter. Dunaway said Regional Director J. H. Bond wrote that "while this separation has been discussed with the Arkansas agency, it has not been cleared by this office."

Dr. Brennecke announced Monday that she would fight her removal from the office with an appeal to the state merit system council.

Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams notified her about two weeks ago that a Little Rock surgeon, Dr. Ellery Gay, should be returned to the post under Selective Service provisions. In a letter to Adams, Dr. Brennecke pointed out that the director's post had been vacant twice since Dr. Gay was released from military duty 11 years ago.

She said no action was taken either time to return him to the position he formerly held.

Dunaway said yesterday that when Dr. Brennecke's dismissal was announced, Adams said that her replacement had been cleared by the federal authorities which supervised spending on federal funds. Dunaway said he immediately wrote both Adams and the Dallas office to check this state matter. Although he received a reply from the federal office, Dunaway said he has not heard from Adams.

820 Homes Razed by Tornado

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Red Cross said today its tabulation on the eight states hit by yesterday's tornadoes shows 320 homes destroyed, 969 damages and 1,496 families affected.

The relief agency sent 55 disaster workers into the affected areas.

President Wins Over Kefauver in Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Democrats claimed their best showing in a Wisconsin spring election in the past several years yesterday as they gave Sen. Estes Kefauver a 42 per cent share of the total vote compared with 55 per cent won by President Eisenhower.

The outcome gave Democrats considerable hope for the future, particularly in the farm belt.

The normally Republican state elected 30 delegates pledged to President Eisenhower and 58 Kefauver delegates — with one-half vote each.

In the 1952 presidential preference primary, Republican delegate tickets claimed 75 per cent of the vote and in 1948 the GOP had 70 per cent. Prior to that there was little basis of comparison, as convention delegates were elected individually rather than on full slates.

The Tennessee Democrat outscored the President yesterday in the 9th and 10th congressional districts which take in the far northern part of the state — one of the most rural and thinly populated areas. Eisenhower led in all other districts.

"Because I am carrying rural precincts, I believe it shows great unrest among the farmers," Kefauver said at Miami. "Since the present administration offers no suitable relief for the farmers' distress, I believe I can carry the farm belt. I think the results also show the farmers are voting for my program and me."

Kefauver had no Democratic opposition and the Eisenhower slate had only taken opposition. Thus the primary was considered a test of popularity between the chief executive and Kefauver. There is no party registration in Wisconsin and voters may vote any ballot they choose.

The delegate vote in 3,196 of the state's 3,321 precincts was:

Eisenhower (R) 417,854

Kefauver (D) 315,602

John Chapple (R) — favorite son 20,251.

It was on the basis of these comparative figures that the Democrats found cheer.

The figures showed the Democratic delegates polling about 42 per cent of the total vote — the largest percentage any Democratic candidates have run up in a spring primary in the past several elections.

The Republican Eisenhower candidates got about 55 per cent of the total vote and the Chapple slate about 3 per cent. Chapple's slate was entered as a group that opposed the President's foreign policy.

Oil Industry Service Plan Set Up Here

The oil industry's 1956 information and service program will be directed in Hempstead county by E. J. Whitman, Gulf Refining Co.

His appointment was announced today by Charles Baker Esso Standard Oil Co., Oil Industry Information Committee area chairman, following an OIIC meeting Monday night at the Barlow Hotel.

This American Petroleum Institute-sponsored program seeks to make clear how well the people of this area are served by many oil businesses and to gain support for conditions under which they can continue to be privately managed, fully competitive and financially sound.

The local OIIC will emphasize two projects this year. They are a school program providing supplemental teaching materials and special information services free to junior and senior high schools and Oil Progress Week, set this year for October 14-20.

Hempstead's Organization includes:

Vice-Chairman, F. M. McElroy, Texas Co., Hope; Schools Films and Speeches, Norman, Moore, Arkansas, Fuel Oil Corp., Hope; Press-Radio relations, Mack Brown, Texas Co., Hope; Farm Program and Exhibits, L. L. Rowland, Esso Standard Oil Co., Hope; Oil Progress Week, James H. Miller, Esso Standard Oil Co., Hope.

Polled Hereford Sale at L. R.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The American Polled Hereford Association will hold its 1956 national show and sale at Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 28, 29 and 30. It was announced here yesterday.

D. W. Chittenden, executive secretary of the group, said the show will have a $5,500 premium list, largest in its 35-year history. The show will be staged at the new Arkansas State Fairgrounds in cooperation with the Arkansas Polled Hereford Assn.

Approval of Peace Mission Is Pressed

By A. I. GOLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States and its Western allies pressed for Security Council approval today of a Middle East peace mission by U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., council president for April, expressed belief the council would reach a vote today on his proposal that Hammarskjöld seek ways to reduce explosive tensions along the Israeli-Arab frontiers.

A vote late yesterday on the U. S. resolution was delayed when Ahmed Shukairy of Syria and d Egypt's Omar Loutfi said they would postpone their final statements until today. Representatives of Israel, Jordan and Lebanon—the other countries immediately involved—raised no objections to the American resolution. Lodge turned down Soviet amendments intended to restrict somewhat the scope of Hammarskjöld's mission. Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev said he had no objection to the principles of the American resolution but felt the wording could be improved by his amendments.

Five Injured in Tornado at Osceola

By The Associated Press

The casualty list in a tornado which lashed a rural area near Osceola yesterday afternoon stood today at five injured. One of the victims is near death.

Attendees at a Memphis hospital reported early today that Gilbert Fred Robinson, 55, of Paragould, was in a critical condition. Robinson suffered a fractured skull when the vicious wind smashed into the pickup truck he was driving and propelled it 50 feet into a field.

The other four victims were not injured as seriously as Robinson. They are Mrs. Veranita Tyson, 53, her husband, Charles, 48, infant Lily May Anderson, a granddaughter of the Tysons, and Mrs. Reivava Williams, 40.

All four were in tenant houses when the tornado slashed through the Dead Mann's Curve area on Highway 40 about three miles west of Osceola.

Tyson suffered a broken right ankle, and Mrs. Tyson received a broken right leg. Hospital attendants said both are in good condition. Mrs. Williams sustained severe cuts and bruises, and the infant girl escaped with minor injuries.

The violent winds unroofed Taylor's Grocery, demolished two barns and a tractor shed on the Tuck Glascoe farm, and destroyed six tenant houses.

A state trooper, Freddie McKinley, spotted the tornado funnel in the area. He said he threw his patrol car in reverse and backed away at full speed to avoid the twister when it dipped to the ground near U. S. Highway 61 a half mile north of Osceola.

Collier Johnson of Prescott and Clyde Johnson of Delight caught a 15 three-quarter pound drum on a rod and reel in Little River last weekend.

ent Cay? They're about three acres each, and priced around $4,500." "Wonderful!" I murmured. "I could settle on an island like that and live off the fat of the land forever." "Of course, you'd have to build a house first," said Brownrigg. "I would?" "And of course you'd have to have a yacht?" "I would?" "Oh, my yes. You can't just start from scratch, you know. It takes a bit of wealth."

"It does?" "My dreams of owning an island haven't even begun yet. A yacht? And me with barely enough in the bank to make a down payment on a rowboat."

"What is the very cheapest island you have?" I asked desperately.

"Let me see, there's Care Cay—it's a mere $1,300."

"Well, well, now we're really getting some place. How big is it?" "It's about 200 by 300 feet."

"Did you say feet?" "Yes, sir."

"Why there wouldn't be room to switch a cat around on an island that size."

"There aren't any cats there."

"But it isn't too remote. You can have television."

"That gave me the out I was looking for."

"My whole purpose in wanting an island was to get away from it all," I said, with great dignity. "I'm afraid you don't have quite what I had in mind."

"If I have to live on an island that can be reached by television—well, make mine Manhattan."

tion is not opposed to the modified plan and recommends adoption of the modified plan with the exception that we are unalterably opposed to the specific recommendation of the Corps of Engineers which excludes water supply storage in the Millwood Reservoir. If the reservoir is constructed as recommended it will deny a future municipal and industrial and agricultural water supply to the cities and the people of the adjacent area. The denial of equal consideration to all of the people is controversial to Democratic principles and is contrary to long standing impartial policy of the Corps of Engineers.

We urge immediate reconsideration of the water supply feature of the Millwood Reservoir as provided for in 1944 Flood Control Act and subsequent acts to provide a reasonable adequate future water supply in this already critical area, based on needs of the area for the present and future within the financial ability of the people to pay for it.

President Now Working Full Time
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Eisenhower is working full time at his executive duties after recovering completely from last September's heart attack, his personal physician said yesterday.

Speaking at ceremonies marking Founder's Day at Presbyterian Hospital where he once interned, Maj. Gen. Harold Snyder said the President will make another formal report to the nation in the condition of his health just before the Republican National Convention in August where he is virtually certain to be nominated for a second term.

Dr. Snyder also said Eisenhower is in shape to campaign for the office, adding that the extent of his agenda would be a matter for "Eisenhower's own discretion." "It is my honest conviction... the President has had a group of critical problems to solve and difficult decisions during the last four months that surpass any decisions during any similar period I have known him," Snyder said.

DOROTHY DIX

Curb Vicious Tongue or You'll Lose Boy

Dear Miss Dix: Bert and I have been going together for some time and I like him a lot. However, I just can't seem to resist saying mean things to hurt him. Of course he leaves in a huff, but comes back meek as a lamb. I'd really like to be sweet to him, as he deserves, but resolve as I may, the sarcasm keeps coming out.

ANNABELLE

Answer: Swallowed words made unpalatable and even indigestible eating. However, ruinous though they be to your stomach, it's far better to eat than utter them. You can keep from saying nasty things, though it's going to take time and effort. The first few tries are the hardest; after that it's easy to keep your tongue fettered.

If you don't conquer the tendency, one of these days Bert's patience will be exhausted; then you'll wail. "This time I've learned my lesson and I won't do it again." Lessons have an unpleasant habit of being learned just when it's too late. Learn yours in time, Annabelle.

Dear Miss Dix: Do you think a girl of 14 should be allowed to wear backless blouses to church? I like them, but my mother objects. She also disapproves of wearing shorts on the street. Of course she permits them on picnics and around the house, but I must wear skirts when shopping or visiting.

High-School Wife

Dear Miss Dix: How can I make my wife grow up? We have been married two months and she is in her senior year at high school. She is very conceited and is forever throwing up to me that she gave up a promising career in acting or modeling. Frankly, she hasn't the face or figure for either. I love her dearly, but her silly conceit is affecting our marriage.

Answer: Well, Bill, you married an adolescent and you could scarcely expect her to become a settled married woman in two months. She is probably the only married girl in her class at school and an already inflated ego is being further blown up by the importance of her position. I think she'll revert to size upon graduation.

tion. If not, let her have a whirl at modeling. She'll be thoroughly discouraged in short order.

Dear Miss Dix: My son was recently hurt while playing with another, and bigger, boy. It was the other youngster's fault and the resultant injury to our boy cost a hospital bill. There no hard feeling between us, as we realize accidents will happen and our child is all right now. However, the neighbor thinks she should pay the medical bills. What do you think?

CARRIE

Answer: Paying these bills will undoubtedly make the neighbor feel better; you should accept.

Dear Miss Dix: I'm engaged to a man I love very much when we're together. When we're apart, however, I don't miss him or look forward to our next meeting. Another fellow I've met him or look forward to our next meeting. Another fellow I've met interests me very much. Should I accept a date with him in order to find out which one I really love?

MINDY

Answer: It would be a very good idea to decide which one you love but disengage yourself first. A fiancée is supposed to be sure. If you're still in the deciding stage, engagements are out. Don't be dishonorable as well as vacillating.

Cherry Blossom Time in Washington

WASHINGTON (UP)—It's cherry blossom time.

The National Cherry Blossom Festival opened today with band music, speeches, new waves of tourists and blooming pink blossoms.

About 25 per cent of the blossoms on the famed cherry trees bloomed on schedule, ringing the tidal basin by the Jefferson Memorial and bordering the Potomac park drives.

The National capital parks department expected the warm spring air to bring the trees to full bloom by tomorrow or Thursday. Hundreds of thousands of tourists were present for the capital's 29th annual bow to springtime and the 44-year-old gift from the mayor of Tokyo. The festival committee expected 700,000 to arrive before the end of the six-day program.

Tour guides happily predicted the biggest cherry blossom crowd in the festival's history.

American and Japanese officials planned to open the festival officially this afternoon with the lighting of a 10-ton granite Japanese lantern at the tidal basin.

SOMEONE FORGOT
CINCINNATI, O. (UP)—Groundbreaking for a $100 million sewage disposal plant near here was delayed because of an oversight yesterday.

No one remembered to bring the gold-plated shovel.

Although aged people have more long illnesses, they have fewer short illnesses than younger people.

Calendar of Events

The Spring Revival is now in progress at Mum's Chapel Baptist Church, Prescott, Arkansas. Rev.
Charles Burges of Memphis, Tennessee is doing the preaching. Rev.
F. R. Williams, Pastor.

Oak Grove Baptist Church

Sunday, April 1, was a typical day at the Oak Grove Baptist Church. The day began with Easter
Sunrise Service. The Sunday School was well attended with all teachers taking an active part in the practical discussion of the lesson. The Pastor, Rev. E. N. Glover gave the high points of the lesson, commenting on most of the lessons for the First Quarter.

Following this a splendid Easter program was presented with Mrs.
Thelma Ritchie in charge. Scripture read by Clara Garmon and Welcome by Faye L. Ritchie. A representative group of young people in the community participated in the program. A letter, supposed to be an ancient letter dictated in a foreign country, pertaining to the Resurrection, was read by Mrs.
Florida Langston, a pioneer member of the church.

The Pastor preached from I Cor. 15-14. One young man joined as a candidate for baptism. Rev.
Azell Patterson was with us, offered a very fervent prayer and gave us some wholesome, encouraging advice.

Missionary Societies
Hold Joint Meeting
The Missionary sisters of the Church of God in Christ No. 1 and the Rising Star Baptist Church held a joint meeting Monday afternoon April 2, at 2 o'clock. A very interesting message was delivered by the President, Mrs. Jewel West-housen, Subject, The Right Way to Serve God.

The ladies had beautiful pieces
of Handwork on exhibit.
After the meeting, the ladies returned to the Dining Hall, where refreshments were served to all, with the Missionary President of the Church of God in Christ, Mrs. Leona
Bailey, in charge.

A very enjoyable time was had
by all. Sister Emma Black, Secy.
Sister Estella Martin, Treas., Rev.
O. N. Dennis, Pastor.

Sister Of Local Resident
Spends Weekend in City
Mrs. Lucille Bryant of St. Louis, Missouri, spent the Easter Holidays with her sister, Mrs. Ella J. Yeager and family. Mrs. Bryant is the former Mrs. Lucille Bailey of Ft.
Smith, Arkansas, who for a number of years was an instructor in elementary education in the Summer School for Teachers at Hope,
during the lifetime of the late Professor H. C. Yeager.

California Okays Olympic Games

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — It's official — the 1960 Winter Olympic Games will be staged at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The state senate yesterday approved a million dollars for the games, completing legislative action. Another million was voted last year.

The International Olympic Committee had warned that unless the money was raised by April 3, the games would be awarded to Innsbruck, Austria.

Avery Brundage, chairman of the IOC, confirmed by telephone from Chicago that the games officially belong to California.
"Those in charge are fine businessmen," Brundage said, "and they recognize the mighty task ahead. I am confident they can do a wonderful job."

Longden 170 Wins From New Record

SAN BRUNO, Calif. — Veteran Johnny Longden, the winning jockey now active, is just 170 victories from a world record.

Longden, 46, booted home
Nos. 4,700 and 4,701 at Tanforan yesterday with Pit Boss
$6.30 in the first and Ganjala
$6.70 in the fourth.

Only England's Sir Gordon
Richards has won more races.
Sir Gordon retired in 1954 with 4,870 victories.

College Stars and Phillips in Finals

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Only two teams, the College All-Stars and the Barlesville Oilers, can win
the Olympic basketball playoffs.
And they settle the issue head
on tonight.

Undefeated going into the third night of the round-robin playoffs,
Coach Frank (Bucky) O'Connor's College All-Star squad faced a tough fight.

The once-defeated Oilers
bounced back into title consideration last night, rallying in the second half to win from the national AAU champion Seattle Baker's 72-64. The loss postponed the second straight defeat on Seattle and eliminated the club.

The All-Star scored their second straight victory with another second-half rally, coming from five points behind the armed forces team at the half to win 82-74. That loss, although their first, also eliminated the armed forces.

Nothing but a chance for individual players to win attention will hinge on tonight's second game matching the armed forces and the Seattle Bakers.

The team winning the playoffs will be assigned from five to seven places on the squad the United States will send to the Olympics in Australia in November.

The balance of the 12-man Olympic squad will be selected after tonight's games by the Olympic Basketball Committee in consultation with the coach of the winning team. The coach of the winning team becomes the Olympic coach.

Davis Quits as Jonesboro Coach

JONESBORO, Ark. — Charles (Chilli) Davis, whose football teams won 60 games in eight years here, will leave his post as athletic director of Jonesboro
High School to join an insurance firm in this city.

Davis will leave the school system at the end of the present term. A successor hasn't been selected.

The 30-year-old coach, a graduate of Hendrix College coached football three years at the junior high school and five years at the high school. His teams lost only 21 games and tied four.

PINK SHEEP

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Amazed dog catchers snared a pink sheep in their nets.

City animal shelter officials came up with the explanation that the sheep must have been dyed a shocking pink as an Easter gift.

Washington May Be Trouble for Loop Big Boys

BY BEN OLAN
Of The Associated Press

The Washington Senators decided it was time for a change in the Nations Capitol this season and that could mean trouble for the other American League ball clubs.

The guy nominated to do the most damage is Roy Sievers. He is being boomed as most likely to take advantage of the shortened fences in Griffith Stadium, the Senators' home ball yard.

Why Sievers?
For one thing, Roy walloped 25 of Washington's 80 homers last season for a club record. For another, most of his power is to left field and it'll be only 350 feet to home run territory compared to 238 feet in 1955.

And Sievers is warming to his task as the Senators move northward along the exhibition trail.
Yesterday, the 29-year-old first baseman walloped two homers to lead Washington to a 4-1 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs. Roy's blow came in the fourth and eighth innings, both times with no one on base.

Andy Seminick, who isn't expected to break any home run records also slammed a pair yesterday as the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Detroit Tigers 3-1. Herm Wehmeier and Saul Rogovin limited
the Tigers to four safeties.

The New York Giants and Cleveland Indians tore into each other pounding out six homers in a wild and woolly game, won by the Giants 14-13. Gene Woodling, Sam Miele and Earl Averill homered for the Indians while Ruben Gomez, Dusty Rhodes and Ed Bressoud connected for the winners. With all the slugging, New York got its deciding run in the ninth inning on an error, a couple of walks and a sacrifice fly.

The St. Louis Cards, showing surprising strength this spring, won another one, knocking off the Chicago White Sox 7-5. The Cards got a three-run homer from Pip Rupinski, a triple from Bill Virdon and doubles from rookies Jackie Brandt and Hal Smith. Luis Aparicio, another first year man, homered for the Sox.

Don Drysdale, a 19-year-old right-hander up from Montreal, turned in a versatile job for the champion Brooklyn Dodgers. He limited Milwaukee to two runs on three hits in six innings and hit a homer as the Brooks won 6-3.
Relief ace Clem Labine nailed down the victory.

The Boston Red Sox ended Rip Coleman's scoreless exhibition skunk at 12 innings and went on to edge the New York Yankees 5-3.
Tom Brewer pitched seven scoreless frames for the Sox, who were paced by Jackie Jensen's three runs batted in. The Yanks got to Leo Kiely for their three tallies in the eighth.

Ronnie Kline of Pittsburgh gave up only two singles in nine innings
as the Pirates beat the Kansas City A's in a 10-inning night game.
Curt Roberts' single accounted for the Bucs' winning run. Elroy Face picked up the victory and Tom La-Sorda was charged with the setback.

Martinez by a Knockout — Predicted

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Vince Martinez's manager expects his fourth-ranked welterweight contender to knock out Miguel Diaz, recent winner of the Cuban title, in their 10-round television bout in the City Auditorium tonight.

"We're now ready to offer Johnny Saxton a $100,000 guarantee for a title match," said manager Bill Daly. "If we first have to fight Basilio Carmen Basilio, who recently lost his title to Sax-ton we'll do it."

"We're at the crossroads now and this bout and future ones are all dangerous."

Martinez is a solid 215-1 favorite to trim Diaz, and the Paterson, N. J., welterweight will be going after his 22nd consecutive triumph. Diaz will be seeking his ninth in a row.

Martinez has won 47 out of 50, scoring 25 knockouts. He has not been beaten since losing to Danny Giovannelli in March 1953.

Diaz won the Cuban welterweight crown by a decision over Chico Varona and during his career has scored 46 victories against 9 defeats and 2 draws.

NBC will broadcast and telecast
at 10 p. m., EST.

Pastrano Is Favored to Win Tonight

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Willie Pastrano of New Orleans, rated the
No. 7 challenger for Rocky Marciano's heavyweight title, spots
South African Johnny Arthur 35 pounds tonight in their 10-round bout as Willie tries to prove he can handle the real big boys.

The 20-year-old Pastrano, an accomplished master in the art of hit-and-run, recently graduated to the heavyweight ranks. He turned in convincing decisions over former light heavy king Joey Maxim and heavyweight Rex Layne, but Arthur is by far the biggest man
he's faced.

Pastrano is expected to weigh in around 185 while Arthur probably will hit 220 or better.

Pastrano is undefeated since late in 1953 when he dropped a 10-round decision to Italo Scorticini.
Draws with Willie Troy and promising Chuck Speiser are the only blots in his last 15 bouts.

Arthur shows 28 victories in 34 professional outings with 22 of his triumphs coming via the knockout route.

Father of Dizzy, Paul Dean Dies

DALLAS (AP) — Albert Monroe Dean, a one-time semi-pro who taught his two sons, Paul and Dizzy Dean, to pitch and then watched them reach great heights in the baseball world, died yesterday in a Dallas hospital.

The elder Dean, who would have been 82 next month, was a lifelong baseball fan. Born in Rolla, Mo., he played with the Fort Smith,
Ark., semi-pro nine as a young man.

Besides Dizzy and Paul, he is survived by his oldest son, Earl Dean. Other survivors include three brothers, Everett of Oklahoma City; Harry of Okemah, Okla., and Bland of Wichita, Kan.; and two sisters, Mrs. Aleck Fulsom of Okemah and Mrs. Ellis Eskridge of Law.

Manhattan Is Planning a Huge Stadium

NEW YORK (AP) — The Borough of Manhattan, hoping to lure future Olympic Games and other major sports events while retaining its major league baseball franchise, today unveiled plans for a gianttic triple-decked enclosed stadium with a seating capacity of 110,000.
It also would enable Manhattan to match sports strides with Brooklyn, which recently obtained legislative approval to construct a dome covered arena for its world champion Dodgers.

Borough President Hulan Jack,
in a speech prepared for delivery
before a luncheon of the Sports Broadcasters Association said the proposed stadium would be large enough to contain the Olympics, pointing for either the 1960 or 1964 games, and would serve as a new Polo Grounds for the New York Giants.

He added that the stadium, which would be the largest in the United States, also could accommodate such huge crowd-attracting events as the Army-Navy football game.

The stadium, still in the planning stage, would be built on a 2-million square foot area and cover present open railroad yards. The proposed site is bordered by West End Avenue and the West Side Highway.

Jack said the stadium would be financed by private capital with no state aid.

The proposed stadium would provide indoor parking facilities for 20,000 cars and would be complete with escalators.

Around the World

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (UP) — Winston Churchill hit a 35-1 payoff of the roulette wheel of the Grand casino last night.

The former British prime minister took up his winnings, smilingly acknowledged the applause from a circle of spectators and strolled off to the bar for a whiskey and soda.

His actual winnings were well below 35-1 since he had played the number 17 for 20 consecutive times before it paid off.

On the 21st spin, the little marble tottered for an instant on the pin over the number and then fell into the 17 pocket.

Sir Winston grinned slowly as the gamblers and spectators gathered around him laughed and clapped — a rare occurrence in the solemn halls of the casino.

LONDON (UP) — Britain's minority labor party has rejected official Communist overtures for a popular front.

Alfred Robens, foreign affairs spokesman for the labor party, warned yesterday that such a move could mean the "kiss of death" for social Democrats.

Robens, speaking at the annual conference of the distributive workers union, questioned whether Moscow's new line represented a change of heart of merely a change of tactics.

"If we fall for this propaganda we shall find that the embrace of the Communist party is the kiss of death for social democracy," said.

TAIPEI, Formosa (UP) — The Nationalist Tat News agency said today that hundreds of Red Chinese naval vessels are on patrol off the Fukien coast.

The Kuomintang organ said a fleet of small craft was steaming south from the Chekiang coast. It predicted the Communist Chinese would invade the offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu but did not say when.

LONDON (UP) — The British Broadcasting Corp. transmitted its first live color telecast yesterday.

The demonstration, on a closed circuit monitored by a dozen experimental TV sets, was watched by 100 experts, including a group

Chapter XXXIII

Mike's and Ben's wrists were handcuffed behind them. They were marched down a long corridor, the sound of the guards' heels resounding hollowly. After a series of locked doors they emerged in the courtyard of the prison. Two black cars were waiting.

"You, Linden, in the first auto!"

Mike sat between a pair of plainclothes Gestapo men. An armed soldier sat in the front seat alongside the driver.

The doors shut. The car moved slowly through the courtyard. The mammoth gates of Averof Prison opened. The cars rolled out, turned on their sirens and raced for the center of Athens and German

Quotations From Noted Sources

By UNITED PRESS
MIAMI — Sen. Estes Kefauver on the results of the Wisconsin primary.

"This is much, much better than I had expected. Because I carried a number of farm precincts. I think it indicates a great unrest among farmers. . . Since the administration is offering no relief to farmers I feel that we will carry the entire farm belt."

HOLLAND, Mich. — Farmer Jerry Genzink on the devastating tornadoes which shattered western Michigan.

"We got in our car and drove away as fast as we could. Then we saw it pass over our heads and turned back. Our house had vanished."

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on Russia's current anti-Stalin crusade.

"A dictatorship is a dictatorship whether it be that of one man or several."

of Russian scientists.

BERLIN (UP) — West Berlin refugee officials reported yesterday that 14,979 East Germans asked for asylum in West Berlin last month.

Field Police Headquarters.

Near Concord Square they were forced to slow down.

Mike was thrown from his seat as the driver slammed on his brakes. A truck bolted over the intersection of Patission and Chalkokondili Streets and stopped directly in their path. The driver leaned on his horn.

It all happened in seconds. Two dozen armed Greeks swarmed from the truck and surrounded the two cars. The drivers and guards were dragged out, disarmed and forced to lay on their faces on the sidewalk.

"Morrison! This way!"

Michalis, a Tommy gun cradled in his arm, pulled Mike from the car and pulled him along up the street. A car waited at the corner. Michalis pushed Mike into it.

Ben Masterson ran toward the crowd around Concord Square. "See you in Berlin, mate!" he yelled to Mike.

Mike looked back from his car as it ripped into motion. He saw autos being turned over in the street and the armed Greeks pouring back into the truck which headed in the opposite direction. "Hurry!" Michalis roared at the driver in the voice that could be heard clear up to Salonika.

The phone rang. Heisser staggered from the couch, groggy from the sedatives. He shook his head and lifted the receiver. "Yes?"

"Konrad, this is Zervos. I am at Anton's Dress Shop."

"What is it?"

"Lisa did not keep her appointment."

"Why?"

"How should I know?"

"Get back here immediately!"

Heisser could not understand what that meant. He walked to the basin and ducked his head under the cold-water tap.

A knock on the door. The brown-shirted orderly stepped in.

"Manolis Kyriakides to see you, sir."

Heisser frowned. Lisa's husband. Maybe he knew . . .

"Send him in."

"Yes, sir."

Manolis Kyriakides was ushered in. At one time he might have been a handsome man, but now his eyes were shifty and frightened. He might once have stood tall and straight, but now he cringed in the attitude of a coward. Beads of sweat trickled down his nose and chin as he stood in front of Heisser with his hat in his hand.

"The — the children — they — have been kidnapped!"

Heisser leaped to his feet and grabbed Manolis by the collar and shook him so violently the drops of sweat bounced from his face. Heisser backed him across the room and threw him into a chair. Manolis trembled. "Water, please . . ."

He emitted a feeble croak from his cracked lips. "They came last night . . . Lisa led them a dozen men . . . shot the guard, took the children." Manolis closed his eyes and wept.

"Last night!" Heisser screamed. "Why weren't we informed immediately?"

"They — they — said they'd kill me if I came to you before . . ."

Heisser smashed Manolis' face over and over. Manolis fell to the floor sobbing hysterically.

"Guards! Guards! Take him to Averof and shot him!"

Heisser sat at his desk pounding the marble top. Collaborators! Why do we have to have collaborators to win a war?

Why don't we have men like Ioannis Rodites and Stergiou serving us?

The door opened.

Zervos stepped in. "Konrad," he said, "brace yourself. Morrison was in Averof. He has escaped."

The wine cellar beneath Gyni's Restaurant on Armodiou Place was pitch black. Mike and Lisa huddled in a corner. He drew her close and stroked her hair.

Mike recounted the afternoon's events. En route to Gestapo Headquarters, Michalis had led a daring ambush in downtown Athens. In only a matter of minutes he had been transferred to three different cars, the last taking him to this temporary sanctuary.

She had told him everything. Papa-Panos had convinced Michalis, Thanassis and Dr. Thackerly to let Lisa remain alive in the hope that Morrison would contact her in the event of trouble. Papa-Panos was proven right. Axiotis, he aged jailer at Averof, had delivered the note to Lazarus in Chalandri. In an hour the message was in Lisa's hands.

Then Lisa pulled her coup. Before she could turn over the information to Thanassis and Michalis, she demanded the freedom of her children as ransom for the information on Mike's whereabouts. Within another hour the raid on Manolis' home was over and the children were hidden in the pump house in Chalandri.
